

MUSIC CAFÉ

“Music, sung or played, is spiritual food for soul and heart.” —Bahá’í Writings

MY GRANDPARENTS STARTED THE MUSIC CAFÉ 45 YEARS AGO!

THEY BEGAN WITH A WEEKLY HOOTENANNY WITH FRIENDS IN THEIR BARN. IT GREW AND GREW INTO A BUSY CAFÉ IN OUR TOWN. I’M LEARNING A LOT FROM THEM. THIS WEEK, I SANG THIS SONG FOR THEM, TO SAY . . .

THANK YOU By Yosi Levin

A Chorus A Verse 1

Too-dah, too-dah, too-dah, too-dah Too-dah, too-dah, too-dah, too-dah Thank you

7 for be-ing my friend Thank you. I know you un-der-stand When I

14 need some-one to play with Lend a help-ing hand You’re that some-one I can de-pend on Thank you

19 A Chorus for be-ing my friend Too-dah, too-dah, too-dah, too-dah Too-dah, too-dah,

25 1. too-dah, too-dah too-dah, too-dah I’m thank-ful that you’re my bro-ther

30 I’m e-ven thank-ful for my ver-y stick-y lit-tle sis-ter For my 35 mom and dad, aunts and un-cles too Grand-pa-rents, cou-sins.

38 To verse 3 Woo-hoo! I said thank you for be-ing my fam’ly

3. Well I’m thankful for everything
 All the birds in the trees and the flowers in the spring
 For the friends and families we have right here
 Fill our hearts and souls with warmth and cheer
 For all our blessings both great and small

I’m thankful for everyone and all
 So, thank you for everything
Chorus
 Too-dah, too-dah, too-dah, too-dah
 Too-dah, too-dah, too-dah, too-dah (10 times)
