

"Oh, friends of God, be living examples of justice!" —'Abdu'l-Bahá

I WILL STAND UP FOR JUSTICE!

ARE YOU A CHAMPION OF JUSTICE?

You don't need superpowers to fight for justice. By developing your natural powers of fairness and courage, you can stand up for justice in your own school or neighborhood.

You have lots of opportunities every day to build peace and respect. When you follow rules and laws, share your stuff, or stand up for a kid who's getting picked on, you're practicing justice.

You don't have to cause a big confrontation. Sometimes it's enough to simply say, "Hey, that's not cool. Let's do something else."

It might seem scary at first to speak up for what you think is right—especially when others don't agree. But you can start with small steps and build your confidence. Who knows? You might inspire others to be champions of justice, too.
