

NOW SHOWING: YOUR LIFE

Lights, camera, action! In the movie of your life, you're the screenwriter, actor, and director, all rolled into one. Your choices help determine the movie you make. Is it a creative animated adventure? A documentary about scientific discoveries? Or a story about an athlete who struggles, but rises to the top?

Your life is full of opportunities to make your movie what you want it to be. Your education and major goals will play a big role. It may be years before you begin your career, but you can start thinking and planning for it now.

It's wonderfully satisfying to have an enjoyable career that makes you feel good about being of service to the world. Try out this quiz and see what it says about your personal movie.

QUIZ: REHEARSING FOR SUCCESS

For each question, select the answer that's closest to your interests.

- Your idea of a fun service project is ...
 - Performing at a charity event
 - Joining a walk for an important cause
 - Finding ways your school can recycle and save energy
 - Tutoring younger kids with their homework
- An accomplishment you'd be really proud of is ...
 - Winning a drawing or story-writing contest
 - Scoring the winning points in a championship game at school
 - Getting the grand prize at the science fair
 - Helping build a home for a family in need
- An article you might write for the school newspaper would be ...
 - A review of a movie or art exhibit
 - A piece about the swim team's recent win
 - News about the latest earth-saving or space technology
 - Tips for solving problems with friends
- When you have free time, you're more likely to ...
 - Draw or write in your journal
 - Play sports
 - Try out a science experiment
 - Help with a neighborhood clean-up project
- If you were going to start a club at school, it would be a ...
 - Drama, art, or poetry club
 - Biking or running club
 - Math or science club
 - Service club
- It's the most fun in ...
 - Art class
 - P.E. class
 - Math or science class
 - Social studies class
- Your idea of the perfect field trip is ...
 - Going to the art museum or bookstore
 - Touring a professional sports stadium
 - Classifying birds and trees at a nature reserve
 - Cheering up kids at the children's hospital
- You're helping out with your school's spring festival. You'd rather ...
 - Create posters
 - Be in charge of the basketball-shooting game
 - Help set up the equipment
 - Greet volunteers and give them snacks
- If you were going to start a business, it would be ...
 - An art supplies store or photography studio
 - A fitness center or sporting goods store
 - A computer business or garden center
 - A medical clinic for the poor or a charity group

