

WHAT DO YOU SAY?

“Racial prejudice . . . is unnatural and proceeds from human motive and ignorance.” —Abdu’l-Bahá

It’s painful to hear a racist joke or comment, and it can be hard to know what to do. You may think, “They’re only words. I’ll just ignore them.” But those words can have a big impact.

Strong communities start when we connect hearts and build friendships. That isn’t always easy. Prejudice and lack of awareness can put up walls between people from different races or groups.

It takes courage, but speaking up against racism and prejudice knocks down walls and builds true friendships. And that makes our lives—and our communities—much richer. What do you say when you spot racist ideas?

SOME THINGS ARE BETTER, BUT THERE'S STILL A LOT OF RACISM. WE ALL NEED TO WORK TOGETHER TO STOP IT.

OR

I'M GLAD PEOPLE WERE BRAVE ENOUGH TO CHANGE THINGS. THEY INSPIRE ME TO HELP STOP THE RACISM THAT'S STILL HERE.

WE WANT TO PLAY WITH THEM, SO MAYBE THEY WANT TO PLAY WITH US. LET'S ASK!

OR

WE ALL LOVE BASKETBALL. WE MIGHT HAVE OTHER THINGS IN COMMON, TOO.

WRITE WHAT YOU WOULD SAY:

A LOT OF LEAD ACTORS WERE WHITE IN OLDER MOVIES. IT'S COOL THAT THERE'S MORE DIVERSITY NOW.

OR

I LIKE MOVIES WITH DIVERSE CHARACTERS. THE WORLD ISN'T ALL WHITE, SO WHY SHOULD MOVIES BE?
