

CELEBRATE WITH THE ARTS

Each fall, Bahá'ís celebrate the births of the Báb and Bahá'u'lláh. The Báb (meaning “the Gate” in Arabic) foretold the coming of Bahá'u'lláh, Who is the founder of the Bahá'í Faith. They're often referred to as the Twin Manifestations of God.

This year, the Birth of the Báb falls on October 16, and the Birth of Bahá'u'lláh is on October 17. The Twin Holy Birthdays are a time of celebration, joy, and worship.

These days also bring a wonderful opportunity to incorporate the arts into your festivities. Invite your friends to make a decorative craft, sing songs, or dance together. Drama, poetry, and photography are other great ways to explore your creativity.

You don't need to be an expert to express yourself and have fun. With a welcoming spirit of kindness and love, we can attract people's hearts and honor these memorable occasions.
