

TWIN CELEBRATIONS

Born in Tihrán, Persia (now Iran) in the autumn of 1817, Bahá'u'lláh astonished everyone with His innate wisdom and spiritual nature. When He was still a small child, His father said, "Such intelligence! And such perception. He is as a flame of fire. Even at this young age He surpasses mature men."

The Báb, Who was born two years later in Shíráz, made a similar impression on those around Him. The Báb's teacher told His uncle, "He is not to be treated as a mere child, for in Him I can already discern evidences of that divinely mysterious power . . ."

This year, Bahá'ís and friends celebrate the Birth of the Báb on October 22 and the Birth of Bahá'u'lláh on October 23. These Twin Holy Birthdays are a time of festivity, worship, and joy. Invite friends and neighbors to join these gatherings, and share the Faith's uplifting teachings of peace and unity. With an open heart, we can honor these momentous occasions in a spirit of friendship and generosity.
